Things to Remember

Before You've Left, Don't Forget...

Moving is exciting so we often forget to do the most important things that don't involve moving the stuff. Here is a list of things to remember before your ship sails.

1 ...To Notify...

Before you change your address, there are a few people who should be notified first. Not only are your friends and family on the list but organizations, service providers, employer's government agencies rely on up-to-date information to serve you best. All situations are different, so we left you a few spots at the end to add your own items to remember.
